

About coliberate

If we want to make a difference, then we need to do things differently – Coliberate is here to show you how.

As an inclusivity and liberation consultancy, Coliberate provides coaching, consulting, speaking and training to individuals, groups and organisations seeking to improve their impact for positive social and/or environmental change. Our aim is to enlighten, equip and empower others so that they may dismantle systems of oppression and create a fairer and freer society for the coliberation of all.

We've spent over a decade developing our specialised framework, one that bridges academic theory with practical application, employing approaches across workplace equity, diversity and inclusivity; social and environmental justice; and anti-oppression and systemic liberation. With an inherently intersectional and outcomes-oriented focus, our work seeks to enable people from all walks of life to understand the valuable role they can play in making the world a better place, avoiding shame or punishment so that everyone can work together for the coliberation of all.

"If you want to develop your EDI practice, become a more inclusive organisation, or get support to navigate a turbulent world, I would highly recommend Coliberate's services."

– Garry Jones, CEO, Support Staffordshire
